Currently Arranged Musical Selections

When purchasing the selections, the “permission to arrange” will be pursued and the fee will be added to the price of the selection. In most cases the fee runs from $100 to $200 depending on the publisher. In today's music world, it is extremely important that “permission to arrange” be obtained or face the possibility of legal action by the various publishing companies owning the rights to each song. As part of my service, I am happy to pursue the “permission to arrange” for you.
